Good Character and Fitness To Practice Law

Rule 9 - Character and Fitness to Practice Law

RULE 9(a) General Requirement.

- ✓ Each applicant shall produce to the Board satisfactory evidence of good character and fitness to practice law.
- ✓ This burden is initially met by establishing in the completed application and additional materials required by Rule 5 the absence of any information adverse to the applicant's character and fitness to practice law.
- ✓ If any such adverse information is provided in the application and additional materials, or otherwise received by the Board, the applicant has the burden of producing further evidence to explain or rebut such information sufficiently to satisfy the Board that the applicant is of good character and is fit to practice law.
- ✓ The attributes of character and fitness to practice law that are relevant to this determination are those pertinent to the trust placed in lawyers by the public and clients as well as to the requirement that lawyers in this state comply with the Maine Bar Rules and the Maine Rules of Professional Conduct

Character and Fitness Investigation Step-By-Step Process

The Executive Director reviews all applications that are received by the Maine Board of Bar Examiners for admission to the Maine Bar.

During the initial review, the Executive Director will mark any applications that have conduct related matters which need to be reviewed by the Board.

This initial review by the Board does not occur until after grades are finalized.

Once finalized, the Board will review only the files of the applicants who have passed the exam that require additional review. Files marked for additional review for applicants who did not pass will not be reviewed until the applicant passes a future exam.

Since the Board does not begin its review of character and fitness until grades are released, applicants will receive notice of this additional review in their results packet.

Review and Additional Investigation

Maine Bar Admissions Rule 9(b):

Three-Member Panel Review

If the application, certificates, references, unsolicited communications, or other information received by the Board cause the Board to doubt the good character and fitness to practice law of an applicant, the Chair, if it has not already done so, shall designate a three-member review panel pursuant to Rule 4(b) to conduct an investigation on behalf of the Board.

As soon as the Board determines that a three-member review panel is necessary, the Executive Director will notify the applicant of the date, time and reason for the three-member review panel.

Three-member review panels are recorded by the Board and included in the applicant's investigative file.

Determination of Need of Rule 9 Hearing

Maine Bar Admissions Rule 9(c):

If the Chair, based upon the application, certificates, references, unsolicited communications, or other information received, determines that a hearing pursuant to Rule 9(d)(5) is necessary to resolve doubt regarding the applicant's good character and fitness to practice law, then the Chair may forego the designation of a three-member review panel, and direct the matter be set for hearing.

Rule 9 Hearing

Hearing Panel

- ✓ The matter shall be heard by a panel consisting of all members of the Board except the members of the review panel.
 - ✓ The hearing panel shall exercise all powers of the full Board in the conduct of the hearing, and the determination of the panel after hearing shall be the determination of the full Board.
 - ✓ Four members of the hearing panel, including one public member, shall constitute a quorum for all actions and decisions.

Rule 9 Hearing

- √The Rule 9 Hearing is a public hearing.
- √The deliberations of the Board following any hearing under this subdivision shall not be open to the public.
- √The decision of the Board following any hearing under this subdivision shall be made available to the public.
